

Stokes Partnership for Children presents the ninth annual Little Folks Festival
10 AM to 2 PM
April 17, 2010
Walnut Cove Elementary School
Walnut Cove, NC

Stokes Partnership for Children is sponsoring this fun-filled event to celebrate National Week of the Young Child. The mission is to promote early care, childhood education and school readiness for children birth to five years of age. Other areas of focus include family support and health.

Music, games, arts and crafts and other fun hands-on activities for children! Lots of fun entertainment while learning about vital information pertaining to services for families!!

Please fill out the bottom portion to indicate your willingness to participate. You may be contacted by a festival committee member for additional information. There is no fee this year to participate!

Name of Organization/Business _____
 Contact Person _____ ph # _____
 Mailing address _____
 How does your organization/business serve the needs of young children/families in Stokes County? _____

I would like to participate by:

- Informational booth (display information about your organization/business)
 - Put me outside
 - Put me inside
- Provide a service (ex. vision screening)
- Have items available for purchase: type of items _____
- I need an electrical outlet (there are a limited number available)
- I need _____ table(s) I need _____ chair(s)
- I cannot attend- I will send literature for display.
- I would like to provide an activity. Please describe _____

I understand that in order to participate in the Little Folks Festival I must remain at my booth or agreed upon area during the hours of the event and understand that families may attend the event anytime between 10:00 AM and 2:00 PM. I understand that leaving early will disappoint our families!

Signed _____ Date _____

Return by Friday, April 9, 2010 to: Stokes Partnership for Children, Little Folks Festival, PO Box 2319, King, NC 27021 or email to ctuttle@stokespfc.com. For more information call 336-985-2676