

BBQ for Books

Proceeds from this event go toward the Howard Mabe Early Childhood Fund to support early childhood programs for 2,500 young children (birth to age five) in Stokes County. Programs supported are:

Dolly Parton's Imagination Library

EVERY child under 5 years of age in Stokes County receives a free book EVERY month!

Raising a Reader

An EVIDENCE-BASED program that helps families build, practice, and sustain daily book-sharing routines to improve early literacy skills. The program features a weekly rotation of bright red bags filled with high-quality books, which children bring home to read with caregivers.

Lending Library

BOOKS are purchased to be available for check out by the public through the KidSource Child Care Resource and Referral Library in King.

Little Folks Festival & Other Events

Books are given away at COMMUNITY events like our Little Folks Festival (Walnut Cove & King). Parents learn about local resources while young children get to visit a school classroom, climb aboard a big yellow school bus and take a book home for free.

Book Walk

Our Book Walk, located at King Central Park, encourages children and their families to enjoy reading and the OUTDOORS. Future exhibits are planned in other parks throughout the county.

Other Early Childhood Programs

Based on identified needs, funds may also be used for an assortment of other underfunded programs.
